FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Alfond Youth & Community Center Names Steven Scraggs Chief Executive Officer: to Begin February 1

Waterville, Maine – January 28, 2026 – The Alfond Youth & Community Center (AYCC) today announced that Steven Scraggs has been appointed Chief Executive Officer, effective February 1, 2026. Scraggs will lead AYCC's mission to strengthen youth, families, and community programs and services that support health, belonging, and opportunity.

Additionally, the Board announced that Susan Scacchi has assumed the role of Board Chair. Susan, who serves as Executive Director of the Maine Masonic Charitable Foundation, has been a committed board leader and brings extensive institutional knowledge and experience to the position.

“These leadership transitions reflect intentional planning and a shared vision for the AYCC’s future,” said Scacchi. “We are confident that Steven’s leadership, supported by strong board governance, will ensure continued stability, growth, and positive impact for the communities we serve.”

Scraggs brings extensive experience leading teams, cultivating partnerships, and advancing mission-focused strategy. In his role as CEO, he will elevate AYCC’s long-term sustainability and impact.

“I am excited to be selected as the next CEO of the AYCC,” said Steven Scraggs. “I am looking forward to working with our amazing staff and outstanding Board in service to our community. Together, we have an incredible opportunity to lead the next era of excellence for AYCC and the Waterville region.”

The CEO appointment follows a comprehensive national search led in partnership with DSG | Koya Partners, and reflects AYCC’s continued commitment to strong leadership and community-centered service.
